

The Children's Book Fair

Celebrating the joys of reading and childhood for over 25 years.

Sunday, September 22nd
Hyde Park, Chicago
www.57cbf.org

For decades, families from all over Chicago have enjoyed our offerings of books, music and art as well as family activities provided by some of the city's greatest cultural institutions. We are a living Hyde Park tradition that celebrates the love of reading through storytelling, puppetry, music, dance and craft activities and we hope to continue engaging all ages for many years to come.

A nominal fee that covers only our necessary equipment allows select participants to address our diverse audience in a relaxed environment. We do ask that non-profit participants have a child-friendly activity or craft at their table to keep our event kid-centric and engaging.

Join the fun on Sunday, September 22nd from 12pm until 5pm in the afternoon at Nichols Park, located on the north side of 55th Street, between Kimbark and Kenwood Avenues. Our rain location is the Hyde Park Neighborhood and we thank them for their continued support.

In addition to this year's main event, we are starting a new project this year. The Children's Book Fair, in cooperation with longtime sponsor Powell's Books, will be having a introductory event on Saturday, September 21st at Powell's Books at Halsted & Roosevelt. See the attached page for an opportunity to debut at The Powell's Children's Book Fair.

To secure your place at the Fair, please complete the enclosed registration form and mail us your table fee by September 1, 2013. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Sincerely,
